

FACT SHEET

Concept	Casual Trattoria (Western &amp; Local Cuisine) Casa Verde is a laid-back trattoria nestled within the lush greenery of the Singapore Botanic Gardens. Casa Verde, meaning 'Green House' in Italian, provides diners with a scenic view and cosy ambience. Popular among joggers and families in the day and couples at night, this pet-friendly establishment also offers dog bowls for pooches at a designated corner of the al fresco area. Conveniently located at the entrance of the Visitor Centre, diners can seek a culinary respite from trekking through the lush foliage.
Cuisine	A café by day and restaurant by night, Casa Verde offers breakfast, all-day dining with a menu bolstered with classic Italian dishes and local delights by Chef Danny Tan. To support the park's UNESCO World Heritage Site status, Casa Verde offers iconic Singaporean dishes that tell the nation's diverse culture and history, while keeping favourite western choices like pastas and pizzas in line with the park's colonial history. Breakfast is served daily, with pork-free choices for Muslims, while dinner serves casual trattoria food.
